Iqaluit, NU; Kuujuaq, Montreal, QC, June 14, 2022 – The annual NEAS summer sealift is underway, and dry cargo marine resupply is being loaded on NEAS vessels set for first sailings to remote communities across Canada's Eastern and Western Arctic.

"It's smooth sailings for the NEAS summer sealift" says Suzanne Paquin, President and Chief Executive Officer, The NEAS Group. "The NEAS team is ready to help you plan and succeed this summer sealift season."

Sailings & Cargo Cut Offs

View the NEAS 2022 Sailing Schedule at NEAS.ca and keep current on sailings. The sailing schedule includes critical cut-off dates for cargo delivery to NEAS Bécancour, including dangerous goods, packaging, container, and terminal-ready cargoes.

Reserve Sealift & Request Packaging Now

The NEAS professionals are here to help you from housing, mining, and heavy construction to stores, defense and individual, family and community orders. Specialized cargoes are our expertise.

"We are dedicated to delivering a superior sealift experience and committed to your success" says Marc-Andre Bougie, Vice-President, Sales and Marketing.

Reserve space and request packaging at NEAS.ca or reach one of our sales representatives at 1-877-225-NEAS (6327) and let us help you plan your project and order safely.

Schedule Cargo Drop-off

To schedule an appointment to deliver your confirmed cargo requiring packaging, call the NEAS Cargo Service Center at 1-866-908-0807. For confirmed cargoes ready to be loaded, call the NEAS Marine Terminal at 1-888-908-0000.
