Iqaluit, Nunavut; March 31, 2026 – Nunavut Eastern Arctic Shipping (NEAS) is pleased to announce that it will provide exclusive maritime shipping services for the Government of Nunavut across the territory, following a call for tenders.

“We are proud to contribute to the resupply of Nunavut communities and are committed to doing so in a reliable and safe manner,” said Daniel Dagenais, President and Chief Executive Officer of the NEAS Group. “This agreement reflects our commitment to the Arctic and the communities we serve”.

Through a team of qualified professionals, supported by a modern fleet of Inuit-owned vessels, NEAS ensures the reliable transportation of essential goods and equipment to northern communities, while supporting supply chains in remote regions and fostering economic development in the Canadian Arctic.
