NEAS Group Releases New Online Tools to Improve Arctic Sealift Experience for Customers

IQALUIT, NU, & KUUJJUAQ, QC, May 23rd, 2018 / NEAS/ - Just in time for the opening of the 2018 Arctic shipping season, the NEAS Group, a leading provider of Arctic marine resupply, container and packaging services, officially launched its new corporate website at http://www.NEAS.ca/.

The new NEAS.ca website delivers an even better Arctic sealift experience for NEAS customers from first click to final delivery and every stage in between. NEAS customers benefit from the simple layout, clean design and enhanced features, functionality and navigation, including improved sealift reservations and new packaging request options.

"For Arctic sealift you can depend on, click NEAS.ca" said Suzanne Paquin, President and CEO, NEAS Group. "The NEAS team is proud to offer the best available online tools to support Arctic sealift customers."

The new NEAS.ca website offers everything you need to reserve your 2018 sealift, including checklists, insurance, cargo cut off and delivery, packaging and container options, and more.

"All NEAS customers, big and small alike, will benefit from the new NEAS.ca website," said Ms. Paquin. "If you are an individual, family, community, local store, government department, military, defence contractor, construction company, mining operation, research installation, or something else altogether, we have you covered no matter what."
